Q & A

Is there a deposit?

Yes, there is a deposit per child to hold their spot for the camp due at the time of registration. The remaining balance is due on the first day of camp. All camp and workshop deposits are non-refundable. If canceling you will NOT receive your deposit back. It is transferable to other camps or times. Deposit WILL be returned if the camp you choose is cancelled due to not reaching minimum enrollment. You will not see your check deposited until the camp is running. If your check is posted 60 days prior to your selected camp starting you may need to re-issue the check for payment. Please do not send checks with the full amount. Tax is not included in the posted price.

Do you accept personal checks?

Yes, we do accept checks for camps and workshops only, however, if they are returned by the bank you will be responsible for the full payment of camp and the returned check fee of $40.00 in cash or money order. Items will not be returned without payment. We also accept Visa, MasterCard, and Discover for payment.

What is the cancellation policy?

Two week's notice is required for any cancellations or to reschedule. Failure to do so will result in loss of your full deposit. We understand that changes are sometimes necessary, so let us help you when they arise.

My child is under your age requirement. Can I still sign them up?

We understand that every child is different, and may be mature for their age. However, our camps are geared to the ages specified (meaning it may be difficult to make some or most of the projects without more staff assistance). Please respect our age requirements.

There will be a fee of $15 per day for any child under the age requirement for extra staffing.

Is there a snack?

No, we do not provide a snack. Children should pack a lunch and also bring a bottle of water or a drink. We are able to refrigerate lunches and drinks.

When will camp projects be available? Items requiring firings such as pottery, glass, or paint your own pottery will be available for pick-up 2 weeks from the camp date. We will call when items are ready and you may pick them up. Tie dye & Canvas painting items will be returned the same day to the camper.
